

| REVISION                                                                      |     | DATE | DESCRIPTION                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| DESIGNED                                                                      | GDA |      | SANITARY SEWER PROFILESFOR"GOLFER'S CROSSING"ATTHE WATERS EDGEPROPERTY OFWILLARD CONSTRUCTION OF ROANOKE VALLEY, INC.UNION HALL MAGISTERIAL DISTRICTFRANKLIN COUNTY, VIRGINIA |
| DRAWN                                                                         | RAC |      |                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| CHECKED                                                                       | MSW |      |                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| LUMSDEN ASSOCIATES, P.C.ENGINEERS-SURVEYORS-PLANNERSROANOKE, VIRGINIA |     |      | SCALE: 1" = 50' HORIZ.1" = 10' VERT.DATE: 19 AUG. 1997COMM: *84-06596SHEET 8 of 13                                                                                                            |

